

CALOMEL IS MERCURY, IT SICKENS! STOP USING SALIVATING DRUG

Don't Lose a Day's Work! If Your Liver Is Sluggish or Bowels Constipated Take "Dodson's Liver Tone."—It's Fine!

You're bilious! Your liver is sluggish! You feel lazy, dizzy, and all knocked out. Your head is dull, your tongue is coated; breath bad; stomach sour and bowels constipated. But don't take salivating calomel. It makes you sick, you may lose a day's work.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel crashes into your bile like dynamite, breaking it up. That's when you feel that awful nausea and cramping.

If you want to enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone. Your druggist or dealer sells you a 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone under my personal money-back guarantee that each spoonful will clean your sluggish liver better than a dose of nasty calomel and that it won't make you sick.

Dodson's Liver Tone is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up feeling fine, your liver will be working, your headache and dizziness gone, your stomach will be sweet and your bowels regular. You will feel like working; you'll be cheerful; full of vigor and ambition.

Dodson's Liver Tone is entirely vegetable, therefore harmless and cannot salivate. Give it to your children! Millions of people are using Dodson's Liver Tone instead of dangerous calomel now. Your druggist will tell you that the sale of calomel is almost stopped entirely here.

St. Louis Mothers Agree With Those Of Kansas City And St. Jo.

Children's Colds, They Say, Should Be Treated Externally—Internal Medicines Are Harmful.

In our previous advertisements we have published letters from mothers in Kansas City, St. Jo., Joplin, Springfield and other Missouri cities. These ladies agree that internal medicines injure the delicate stomachs of the little folks, and they recommend the use of the external treatment—Vap-O-Rub. From a large number of letters from St. Louis women we will give just a few extracts.

Mrs. K. Petranich, 2900 Park Ave., writes: "Last winter when I had a bad cold I applied Vap-O-Rub over my chest and throat covering with a warm flannel cloth. I had almost instant relief, and believe it better than internal medicines for cold troubles."

Mrs. S. J. Wolf, 2341 Dodder St., says: "I used Vick's Vap-O-Rub on my baby who had bronchitis. I applied it over his chest, following directions, and the next morning he breathed easier."

Mrs. M. Hickman, 4020a Laclede Ave., says: "I have given Vick's Vap-

O-Rub a thorough trial for headache, cold in the head and chest, cuts and burns and find it without an equal." Mrs. W. J. Himmelfarb, 630 Lynch St., writes: "I recommend Vap-O-Rub to all mothers with small children. I tried it on my children for colds, sore throat, tonsillitis, and burns, and it certainly gave us great results."

Mrs. J. T. Shepard, 4221a No. 9th Street, writes: "My husband had a very sore throat, as he has had several times before, and always hitherto he has had to have it lanced; but this time he used Vap-O-Rub and was cured without any trouble."

Vick's comes in salve form and when applied over the throat and chest the body heat releases the ingredients in the form of vapors. All night long these vapors are inhaled with every breath through the air passages to the lungs, loosening the phlegm and taking out the tightness and soreness. You will find it quicker than internal medicines, and it can be used freely with perfect safety on the smallest child. Three sizes, 25c, 50c or $1.00. At all druggists.

GRAND JURY REPORTS 13

Seek Indictment of Many Persons Connected With Cohen Mystery at Charleston Last October.

Charleston.—A special presentment was made by the grand jury following an investigation into the committee room shooting on October 15 last, which resulted in the death of Sidney J. Cohen and the wounding of several others, 13 indictments being asked for, and the duty of bringing the charges specified is now in the hands of the solicitor, who will act at once. As court arrived at the end of the session witnesses and petit jurors having been dismissed and the grand jury excused from further attendance at this term, the special presentment and developing indictments will not be followed up until the June term of the court of general sessions.

No responsibility for the killing of Mr. Cohen is fixed in the finding of the grand jury.

Indictments are asked for as follows:

Henry Brown and W. E. Wingate, assault, and battery with intent to kill and carrying concealed weapons.

Patrick Quinn, F. E. LaFourcade and J. R. Cantwell, assault and battery with intent to kill.

Edward McDonald, J. H. Steencken, Fred Stender, George Hentiers, W. Turner Logan, J. J. Healy and J. A. Black, carrying concealed weapons.

Frank Hogan, for inciting riot. There are 66 witnesses named in the presentment. The indictments handed to the grand jury against Henry Brown and S. R. McDonald are returned with the request that the solicitor indict as recommended.

Asked what would be the next step relative to the special presentment of the grand jury, Acting Solicitor J. K. Henry said that he would at once make out bills of indictment to be handed to the grand jury at the next term of court; that all those named in the presentment of the grand jury for carrying concealed weapons and the other offenses charged would be arrested at once and bound over to the next term of court. Warrants will be issued to guarantee the appearance at the next term of court of all witnesses named.

Aiken to Have Horse Show.

Aiken.—Aiken's first horse show, but which is destined to become an institution here and to attract sportsmen to Aiken from a wide territory each successive year, will be held Saturday, March 18. Work has already begun on the building of a ring in front of the club house at the Pine Tree Polo club, where the horse show will be held. There are in Aiken at the present time more than 400 horses, privately owned, most of them thoroughbreds, a larger number than at any time since the old days when the late William C. Whitney maintained his famous racing stables here.

Catawba Rifles Show Up Well.

Rock Hill.—The annual inspection of Company H, S. C. N. G., locally known as the Catawba Rifles, was held last week. Capt. J. Malcolm Graham of the United States army was the inspector for the government. Adjutant General Moore will later inspect the company for the state, this making two inspections instead of one as heretofore. Out of a total of 65 men and three officers, 56 men and three officers answered roll call, while five men have been granted permission to report for inspection at other places. Consequently only three men were absent from the inspection.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Acting Director of Sunday School Course of the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)
(Copyright, 1916, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR MARCH 19

PHILIP AND THE ETHIOPIAN.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 8:26, 40.
GOLDEN TEXT—Understandest thou what thou redest?—Acts 8:30.

Beginning at verse four, chapter eight, we enter upon the second great division of the Book of the Acts. It marks the beginning of preaching outside of Jerusalem and also the employment of lay-preachers. The persecution of the Jerusalem church was chiefly led by Paul (v. 3) and resulted in a wider dissemination of the good news (v. 4). Philip the deacon went to Samaria where multitudes heard and saw (vv. 5, 8) and where a remarkable work of grace attended his dealing with Simon Magnus, who thought he could buy the gift of the Holy Spirit bestowed by the apostles (v. 9-24). The apostles returned to Jerusalem (v. 25) leaving Philip to continue his great revival in Samaria.

I. Divine Preparation. vv. 26, 27. A. The marvelous way God leads us; ways we do not comprehend, to accomplish his great designs is nowhere better illustrated than here. Philip's work would seem to demand his undivided and personal supervision, but he exhibits his superior wisdom by at once obeying this new command (Heb. 11:8). The Samaritan road joined the great Jerusalem highway to Egypt in the midst of uncultivated pasture land. Philip carried "sealed orders" and as he came to Gaza he met this man from the region south of Egypt, who was probably a Jewish proselyte, having adopted their religion, and was returning from worshiping at Jerusalem.

II. Diligent Study. v. 27-29. Philip overheard this high official as he was reading aloud from the prophecy by Isaiah, probably from the Greek translation. The Spirit directed Philip to join himself to this evidently honest inquirer, not because of his wealth and position but because he was a seeker after truth (John 7:17, Ps. 25:9). This statesman gives us a most simple and practical illustration (v. 28 R. V.) of how to study the Bible and to improve the time occupied in traveling. Both Luke, who wrote the Book of Acts, and Philip, the evangelist, seem to accept all of Isaiah without reservation. This method of reading study is the one that will surely secure for us revelations from God.

III. Direct Instruction. v. 30-35. We do not advocate indiscriminate assault upon every passing stranger in our desire to do personal work. Philip took each step as directed by the Holy Spirit. If we are attuned to the Spirit's "small voice" we will surely hear his "Go near" which will send us to those whom we may win for Christ. It is true that this passage from the prophet Isaiah is somewhat obscure and, apart from Jesus of Nazareth, irreconcilable. "In his humiliation his judgment (justice) was taken away"—a fair trial not given; "his generation who shall declare" (Am. R. V.). I. e., his contemporaries who among them considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living (New Cent. Bible). Prof. G. A. Smith has declared that "none but prejudiced Jews have ever denied that this great prophecy, known as the fifty-third of Isaiah, was fulfilled in Jesus of Nazareth, and achieved all of its details in him alone." Philip's question was a pertinent one; good for this present time, and the eunuch's reply was much more frank than many professed Christians of today would be willing to admit. We have one who is ready to guide even as God met this ruler's need (John 14:26; 16:13; 1 Jno. 2:27). The importance of understanding is great (Matt. 13:19, 15:20; 24:15). The two portraits here presented of the Messiah are seemingly irreconcilable and are still a great puzzle to the Jews. Prince of Peace, despised and rejected; Suffering Savior, King eternal; there are many such seeming paradoxes.

IV. Declared Faith. v. 36-40. The eunuch had doubtless seen the rite of baptism in Jerusalem and at the first opportunity he desired to make public his new found faith. Baptism is confession and a symbol (Rom. 6:1-6) and immediately after the eunuch's declaration of faith (v. 37) Philip at once administered the rite, after which, his work being done, Philip is whisked away while the eunuch journeyed on "rejoicing."

These two men were total strangers, yet this wayward conversation gains one who must have heralded far the Gospel as he witnessed along his journey and in his home land. Philip made Caesarea his home and twenty years later met Paul in that city (Acts 21:8).

Philip worked without the machinery of an "organized movement" and evidently without any emphasis upon the offering.

Do we look for the Spirit's personal leadings?

Are we ready for every opportunity? Can we tell men the way of life, how to become a Christian?

How many Sunday school teachers can intelligently use the word of God in answering the inquiry, "What must I do to be saved?"

Fine Healthy Child Convincing Evidence

Simple, Inexpensive Remedy Checks Early Tendency to Constipation.

About the first thing impressed on the young Mother is the necessity for regularity in her baby, which brings up the question of the most desirable laxative for children's use.

Mrs. Jesse Richardson, Philpot, Ky., says she has used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for the past year and that there is no medicine in the world like it. She writes, "My little son, William, Jr., just loved it because it is so pleasant to take, and everybody talks about his being such a fine, healthy boy."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a compound of simple laxative herbs, free from any opiate or narcotic drug, and is the standard remedy for constipation in thousands of homes throughout the land. Don't Stay Gray! It Darkens So Naturally That Nobody can Tell.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.
